In response to CIA request for comments regarding their briefing of January 19, 1955 the following observations are made:

a. Enjoyed overall briefing. Felt it increased the Inspector's usefulness and filled in background which is helpful to Inspectors.

b. Am of the opinion that the subject  Principles and Problems" should have been expanded and further clarified.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Raymond C. Miller, Chief Inspector

DATE: January 20, 1955

FROM : Louis L. Widmer, Adm. Inspector

SUBJECT: Meeting with CIA, January 19, 1955

The session we had with the CIA people proved to be very useful particularly in giving us a clearer understanding of how they operate

The period of time allotted and the subjects covered were I believe sufficient for our purposes.
